

Introducing New Fluval Aquarium and Cabinet Sets

Stylish fresh and saltwater aquariums are perfect for homes or offices

MONTREAL, Canada – June 3, 2013 – Rolf C. Hagen Inc. is proud to introduce new Fluval Fresh and Reef Aquarium and Cabinet Sets, a stunning line of new aquariums designed for maximum eye appeal as well as fishkeeping convenience.

Available for freshwater and reef environments, the aquariums come in three different sizes to fit a variety of spaces in homes or offices.

Every unit is elegantly designed and features a glass aquarium with frosted rim framing and a high-quality laminated wood cabinet with two-tone doors. The cabinets provide an enclosed area for neatly concealing all equipment.

Fresh Aquariums

Freshwater models have sleek and adjustable LED lighting (with day and night settings) mounted above the tank that effectively highlights the aquatic scenery below as well as stimulates the growth of live plants. The top of the tank also has a shield to prevent fish from leaping out of the water.

Each aquarium also comes with an appropriately-sized Fluval Canister Filter, which provides outstanding, multi-stage filtration that keeps water clean and healthy for fish and live plants to thrive in.

3 Freshwater models available:

- 15100: Fluval F35 Fresh Aquarium and Cabinet Set – 58 L (15 US Gal)
- 15105: Fluval F60 Fresh Aquarium and Cabinet Set – 85 L (22.5 US Gal)
- 15110: Fluval F90 Fresh Aquarium and Cabinet Set – 129 L (34 US Gal)

Reef Aquariums

Made for saltwater hobbyists, Fluval Reef Aquarium and Cabinet Sets provide all the key equipment to set up and maintain a successful marine environment.

Each aquarium includes Fluval Sea Marine & Reef Performance LED Lighting, which emits essential actinic blue wavelengths for full-spectrum coverage and key spectral reinforcement, creating optimal coral photosynthetic activity, growth and viewing.

The aquariums also include a pump, a Fluval Sea Protein Skimmer and a Fluval Sea Circulation Pump, all designed to maintain clean and healthy water for marine life to flourish.

Unique drain valve for convenient water changes

The integrated compartment also has a drain valve with drain hose that are designed to make water changes so easy and convenient.

Heater included

Both Fresh and Reef models come with a Fluval M Heater, a sleek and compact submersible heater that provides exceptional performance and unsurpassed reliability.

3 Saltwater models available:

- 15120: Fluval M40 Reef Aquarium and Cabinet Set – 53 L (14 US Gal)
- 15125: Fluval M60 Reef Aquarium and Cabinet Set – 91 L (24 US Gal)
